

Payless Self Storage

Storage Size Guide – Version 1: Based on Living Space or Use Case

This version helps customers choose a unit size based on the size of their home or a specific project, like decluttering a garage or attic.

Living Space or Project	Recommended Unit Size	What It Can Hold
Studio Apartment / Dorm Room	5' x 5' or 5' x 10'	Small furniture, boxes, clothes, dorm items, twin mattress, small appliances
1-Bedroom Apartment	10' x 10'	Queen bed, couch, dresser, coffee table, 10–20 boxes, kitchen appliances
2-Bedroom Apartment / Condo	10' x 15'	Two beds, dining table, sofa set, washer/dryer, 20–30 boxes, bikes
2–3 Bedroom House	10' x 20' or 10' x 25'	Full household items including appliances, bedroom furniture, garage contents
3–4 Bedroom House / Large Move	10' x 30' or warehouse	Complete home contents, outdoor furniture, full garage, large appliances
Garage or Attic Cleanup	5' x 10' or 10' x 10'	Tools, seasonal decorations, lawn equipment, totes, shelving units
Office or Small Business Storage	10' x 15' or 10' x 20'	Filing cabinets, inventory, workstations, retail racks, signage
RV / Boat (Uncovered)	10' x 22' or larger	Small trailers, jet skis, boats under 22 ft
RV / Boat (Covered)	12' x 30' to 12' x 60'	Full-size RVs, boats, trailers, with trickle charger and dump station access

Pro Tips for Choosing the Right Size

- Stack smart: boxes and totes stack well—maximize vertical space.
- Leave a walkway for access if you plan to visit your unit often.
- Use similar-sized boxes to make stacking safe and easy.
